OFFICE OF THE CITY MUNICIPAL OFFICES, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 7th December 1945—23rd May 1946.

The inhabitants of Bangalore City are hereby informed that the Municipal Council have resolved at their meeting held on 27th November 1945, that the following revised Slaughter House bye-laws may be brought into effect in the Municipality of Bangalore.

Any person objecting to the above proposal may send his objection to the undersigned within one month from the date of this notification.

Brief summary of the draft bye-laws of the Slaughter House.

1. The Slaughter House shall be called the Sheep Slaughter House of the Municipality.

2. No place other than the Sheep Slaughter shall be used for slaughtering sheep or gots intended for human consumption.

4. The Butchers and owners of sheep shall have access to the slaughter house. Only licensed persons shall be allowed in the Slaughter house for dressing carcasses. All licensed persons will be provided with a badge once a year on payment of a fee of Re. 1.

7. No child of less than 12 years of age should be admitted into the Slaughter house.

8. No person suffering from Leprosy, Skin diseases or a loathsome disease shall enter the slaughter house.

9. No dog shall be allowed into the slaughter house.

11. Every animal intended to be slaughtered shall be examined by the Health Officer or the Veterinary Inspector.

15. No person shall bring a diseased, dying or dead animal for slaughter.

16. No animal that has been rejected shall be brought to the slaughter house.

17. No animal that is or is suspected to be with young shall be slaughtered.

18. Animals which might have met with an accident not affecting the quality of the meat may be slaughtered with the permission of the Veterinary Inspector.

19. Every person desiring to make use of the slaughter house shall pay a fee of annas three and pies six only to the person authorised in this behalf by the Municipal Commissioner for any sheep or got to be slaughtered and a receipt obtained therefor.

20. Animals shall be slaughtered in the allotted place.

21. The carcass of every animal after it is skinned shall be examined by the Veterinary Inspector. The tripe and the skin shall also be examined.

23. Every carcass, part of carcass, any organ, meat or offal found to be diseased, on examination, shall be seized by the Veterinary Inspector and destroyed.

24. If there are reasonable grounds to believe that any animal has been or is being or is likely to be slaughtered in contravention of the provision of section 167 (i) of the Mysore City Municipalities Act, an Officer authorised in this behalf may, at any time by day or night enter into and inspect any such place or premises, and may seize any animal or carcass found therein and take action under bye-law 15 as noted above.

26. The Veterinary Inspector shall affix the seal of the slaughter house on all carcasses removed to the mutton stalls.

27. The Veterinary Inspector, the Sanitary Inspector or Assistant Sanitary Inspector or any person authorised in this behalf shall report all cases where the carcasses do not bear the seal of the Municipal Commissioner.

28. The skin, entrails and offal shall be washed in the special room in the slaughter house before removal.

29. The solid contents of the entrails shall not be washed into the sewers but removed by the owners of the animals and deposited in the offal truck.

32. No person shall sell, offer for sale, skin, meat or offal in the premises of the slaughter house.

35. No barter shall take place in the slaughter house for skins of animals.

36. No person shall remove any carcass or meat from the aeration room unless it is properly screened from the public view.

37. Meat, entrails or offal shall be removed in baskets or prescribed carts and the baskets and carts shall at all times be kept clean.

38. Whoever infringes any of the bye-laws shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Rs. 25.

39. Any person who slaughters a sheep or goat not passed by the Veterinary Inspector or slaughtered before or after the hour prescribed for the purpose or remove any carcass before 6 A.M. or after 6 P.M. to the market or a licensed place for sale or to any premises including his house or whoever obstructs the Veterinary Inspector or his assistants in the execution of their duty shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

40. No person shall slaughter a sheep or got within the City Municipal limits in a place other than the slaughter house for the sale of meat.

41. The Health Officer may issue a permit to any person to slaughter sheep within the City Municipal limits without payment of the fee for the following festivals and religious ceremonies:—

Hindus only:—

Dasara—one sheep or goat to any one family.

2nd day of Pongal or Shankranti—one sheep or goat.
